

LOUISVILLE DAILY UNION PRESS.

VOL. 2.

LOUISVILLE, KY. THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1865.

NO. 67

CALVERT, CIVILL & CO.,
PUBLISHERS.
OFFICE--PRESS BUILDING,
NO. 826,
Jefferson Street

DAILY UNION PRESS.

TERMS
Mail subscribers, in advance, per year, $10 00
" " " 6 months, 5 00
" " " 3 " 3 00
" " " 1 " 1 00
1/2 the week--payable to the Carrier--25c.

WEEKLY UNION PRESS.

One copy for one year, (22 issues).....$10 00
Two copies, " " " 22 ".....20 00
Twenty copies, " " " 22 ".....40 00
We will send ONE EXTRA COPY with every CLUB OF TWENTY;
TWO EXTRA COPIES with a CLUB OF TWENTY.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
ALL LETTERS relating to Subscriptions, Advertisements, or other business with the paper, should be addressed to "The Union Press, No. 826 Jefferson Street, Louisville, KY."

CO. RESPONDENTS.
Communications for the paper should be addressed to "The Editor of the Union Press, Louisville, KY."
Care should be taken to write on only one side of the paper.

No notice will be taken of anonymous communications.
Whatever is intended for insertion must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer--not the name of the publication, but as a guarantee of his good faith.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

ADVERTISEMENTS IN Weekly Union Press.
Ten lines or less, 25 cents. Larger advertisements in proportion.

ADVERTISEMENTS IN Daily Press.
Five lines (forty words) or less, in a column of "Wants," "For Sale," "For Rent," "Boarding," "Lost," "Found," &c., 25 cents each insertion.

Letter from Boston.

(Correspondence of the Union Press.)

BOSTON, June 29, 1865.

Do you care to hear from the "hub?" Is Kentucky so far removed from the "center" of New England that it can reach her as a friendly voice?

One would think the war had done something to cure prejudices at the South and West, against the opinions and the character of Eastern people; as if the former were wholly unrepresentative of the latter.

But the language of the former is that of the long-faced worshippers of the almighty dollar. You know that this is not the fact; and so must your readers, else a paper like yours would have no readers.

The sectionalism of this projecting corner of the country is overthrown, and the war has done away with the "man of the audience."

Each one seemed to fear as if an invisible presence was there, and some weighty announcement was just on hand.

Suddenly the deep hush was broken by the distant clatter of the "hub" along the road.

The sharp and rapid strokes told of a rider on a dark horse, and the rider knew at once what it meant. For days and weeks their eyes had strained up the streets that led northward, to catch sight of the messenger of good or evil tidings that was hourly expected. He had come at last, and as nearer, clearer, rang the sound of that great trumpet, and the silence was broken by a shout and earned inquiry into his neighbor's face.

Right on the place, straight for the meeting-house, darted the swift rider, and drawing rein at the door, leaped from the saddle, and leaving his horse, stepped unattended, strode into the main aisle. On the floor a silent mat filled the building like a sensible presence, his armed heel rang like the blows of a hammer. As he passed along, a sudden paleness spread over the crowd of faces turned with painful eagerness toward him. But looking neither to the right nor the left, the dread messenger passed on, and, mounting the pulpit stairs, handed the paper a letter.

Southern trade upon credit has been reopened at Cincinnati. The Gazette says:

The credit system is getting a foothold in the dry goods trade again, and is extending its influence to the south. The first was the cotton, and the last was the tobacco.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

The tobacco is now in full flower.

The cotton is now in full flower.

2
THE DAILY PRESS
OFFICE--PRESS BUILDING
NO. 826
JEFFERSON STREET,
LOUISVILLE:

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1865.

For Congress--Fifth District,
MAJ. GEN. L. H. ROUSSEAU, OF LOUISVILLE.

UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR STATE TREASURER,

Capt. W. L. Neale,
Of Madison County.

Union Candidates for Congress in Kentucky.

1st District--C. D. BRADLEY.
2d District--J. H. YEARMAN.
3d District--J. H. LOVETT.
4th District--MARION C. TAYLOR.
5th District--LOVELL H. ROUSSEAU.
6th District--G. CLAY SMITH.
7th District--S. F. FRY.
8th District--W. H. RANDALL.
9th District--SANTEL NICKEE.

CONTINUED NECESSITY FOR NATIONAL LAW.

The difficulty of restoring local law under provisional Governors in the late rebel States, on the two fold basis of the original State organizations, and national legislation respecting slavery, is perplexingly serious. The first of these sub structures contains no law whereby the freedman can protect himself. Any court therefore not competent to exercise jurisdiction in cases involving national law, can do nothing in behalf of this numerous and pre-eminently loyal class of people. And such is the blind madness still of considerable sections of rebels over the irrevocable destruction of slavery, that they are treated with signal and unwonted cruelty. If ever flog was exposed to the danger of incurring the righteous and terrible vengeance of Heaven, this nation is now. We are so bound in all honor and by every consideration to protect the colored man in his new-found freedom, that if we fail, we cannot look, and it would be mockery to ask as a nation, for the continued favor of Providence. The late rebel populations should be made to understand, that they must not only give up slavery, but all the barbarism that grew out of and accompanied it.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT suggests that New Hampshire pay off her State debt by public exhibition of this minority committee. The editor thinks that, as specimens of extraordinary longevity, relics of a dimly remote past, a primeval time, these mouldy old fates would "draw" hugely, and that "the largest halls would be crowded highly even if the admission fee was as high as twenty-five cents."

We hardly think it would be worth while for New Hampshire to adopt the suggestion. Kentucky could beat her at that game. We could furnish specimens more numerous and more antiquated. For her Rome we could furnish ten Ninevahs for her Mastodon, Saurians that waited in an elder air which neither bird nor mammal could have breathed. For live things--still frisky and giving promise of a long continued existence in the future--with the mould of primeval ages upon them, our State is hard to beat. Yankee dom may beat us in washing-machines and "sich." But for dead-line antiquities we are in a fair way to keep ahead for awhile.

REBEL BLOOD CONTINUES TO BOLL.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

"The negro is to be treated henceforth in Georgia and Carolina not less than in Massachusetts, as a man, endowed with inalienable rights, or this nation is "gone up."

For, if the virus of this profane institution of slavery shall prove to have cankered its way to the heart of the nation, so that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE ADVOCATE OF LIBERTY.

It is the first of these sub structures that we can only proclaim liberty to the slave, and cannot enforce and secure it, then slavery will have conquered after all our tremendous sacrifices, and its malignant hostility to Democracy will break out again in one guise or another at no distant day.

THE BOSTON TRANSCRIPT.

A portion of a letter, written during the exciting festivities of the last few days has been picked up in the street and handed us by a friend, who wishes to have it returned to the writer, provided she can be found.

The chirography is neat, vigorous and legible, and the evident work of a fair hand. The writer doesn't seem to have enjoyed altogether the welcome given by our loyal citizens to Gen. Sherman. So we take it that the 4th of July, in this particular year, has not been a season of much exultation with her. And in her mixed mood of depression and ebullition, the loss of even a bit of manuscript may aggravate her symptoms. We are proverbially merciful, and do cheerfully therefore contribute our assistance in the return of this letter. It is but a fragment, and neither the name of the writer nor that of the person addressed appears in it. So we can think of no better way of enabling the former to identify her property than to give an extract from the same. The italics are in the manuscript:

"Not a Federal."

"Captain Boggs, while in command of the steamer Connecticut, was shown an order in the port of Bermuda, regulating the anchorage ground for Federal Confederacy vessels, and the shrewdest of the Southern politicians, who already see that if they want political power in the Union, they can get it only by securing the largest possible representative and voting population. [N. Y. Post.]

THE DAILY PRESS

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1865.

OUR NATIONAL HOLIDAY!

HOW IT WAS CELEBRATED!

INTERESTING PROCEEDINGS.

The Press is the Official Paper of the United States for the State of Kentucky and the Southern portion of Indiana and Ohio.

A WORD TO ADVERTISERS.

Our circulation is rapidly increasing, which renders the Press one of the best advertising mediums in the State. We hope our friends will send in their advertisements.

OUR AGENTS.

Gen. T. Wedding, Atty. at Law.
S. S. S. Frost, Postmaster, Hopkinsville, Ky.
J. H. Duncan, Bagdad, Ky.
S. H. D. Newell, New York.
D. G. Venable, Franklin, Ky.
John Bean, Bowling Green, Ky.
John C. H. Newell, Louisville, Ky.
John Tammell & Co., No. 446, Cherry street, Nashville, Tenn.
Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mattoon, Ill.
T. C. & Co., 200 Broadway, New York.
P. & Co., New York.
Dr. J. J. Folk, Perryville, Ky.

Postmasters of Divisions, Brigades, or Regiments can have the daily Press furnished them in Camp at an early hour in any quantity by leaving their orders at our office the day previous. A liberal discount made to dealers.

THE CROPS.—In some localities in our State, from the best information we have, the crop is, as far as harvested, turned out very meagre. In the bottom lands, especially, is this the case; and we presume the excessive wet weather we have had this spring and summer may be set down as the cause of so much smut, rust and other grain diseases, which render in many cases whole crops yielding scarcely more than five good grains to the head. On the uplands the crop generally is not much better.

The oat crop, however, promises a more abundant yield, not having been materially prostrated by the excessive dampness, though produced on a rigorous stalk, and scarcely an average head.

The grass crop, in some of the greatest yielding counties, may be set down as something over an average crop. In some localities, the harvest is progressing several days, while a regular state of ripeness.

Turnips, as a general thing, look remarkably vigorous, considering their lateness. As a good mark, the stalk looks green, strong and healthy.

THAYER & NOYE'S GREAT SHOW.—Last night was the opening of another great crowd in the spacious area just past the fair grounds, and the spectators were soon turned out very meagre. In the bottom lands, especially, is this the case; and we presume the excessive wet weather we have had this spring and summer may be set down as the cause of so much smut, rust and other grain diseases, which render in many cases whole crops yielding scarcely more than five good grains to the head. On the uplands the crop generally is not much better.

The oat crop, however, promises a more abundant yield, not having been materially prostrated by the excessive dampness, though produced on a rigorous stalk, and scarcely an average head.

The grass crop, in some of the greatest yielding counties, may be set down as something over an average crop. In some localities, the harvest is progressing several days, while a regular state of ripeness.

Turnips, as a general thing, look remarkably vigorous, considering their lateness. As a good mark, the stalk looks green, strong and healthy.

ACCIDENT ON THE STREET RAILROAD.—A soldier, whose name we were unable to learn, was the occupant of another car, and the occupant of the Colonels car, in accepting the invitation to speak on this occasion, he had expressly reserved the right to intersperse a little politics, as it was in the midst of his canvas, and he did not deem it inappropriate. Before entering into a discussion of politics, he took the occasion to congratulate the country upon the victory of the last train adumbrated the crowd that the glorious Fourth had at last ended.

In the amphitheater the exercises were very interesting and attracted the attention of a large concourse of the visitors. The Rev. C. B. Parsons commenced the exercises by reading the Declaration of Independence, which was followed by the finest reading they had ever heard. Dr. Parsons was followed by Dr. R. H. Gilbert in a very patriotic and soul-stirring oration.

Colonel Marc. Mundy was then introduced as one of the orators of the day and accepted the invitation to speak on this occasion, he had expressly reserved the right to intersperse a little politics, as it was in the midst of his canvas, and he did not deem it inappropriate. Before entering into a discussion of politics, he took the occasion to congratulate the country upon the victory of the last train adumbrated the crowd that the glorious Fourth had at last ended.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 3.—Gen. Sheridan is ordering all Texan refugees to return to their homes and resume possession of their property. The citizens are to be held responsible for the acts of General Sherman.

Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, has issued a proclamation discussing Lincoln's emancipation proclamation, saying that the people who lived in Mississippi were subject to the Constitution of the United States which gave them no right to decide its constitutionality; that can be decided only by the Supreme Court, and until it is declared contrary to the fundamental law by the tribunal it must be accepted by the people as valid.

Emancipation is an accomplished fact and should be so accepted. He advises the people of Mississippi to take the amnesty oath and become peaceable, law-abiding citizens.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—The Fourth was extensively observed. There were two parades.

General Banks addressed a great crowd in the Custom House. Mr. Mills addressed a smaller crowd at the Mechanics' Institute.

Salutes were fired in the morning, at noon and at night, at several points. The firemen had a torchlight procession, and the colored men were singing John Brown.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A serious accident occurred to the President's car yesterday about 5 o'clock P. M., at the Baltimore depot of the N. C. R. R. The train consisted of an engine and the President's car, and had just arrived from Gettysburg, when, owing to a misaligned switch, it ran into the end of a flat car, which had been unhooked from the train. The President, Mr. A. S. Moore, appointed secretary, and Gen. A. M. Stone, Hon. W. Johnston, Wm. Atwood, Esq., Hon. W. S. Bodley and Rowan Bucharan, Esq., were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—The Fourth was extensively observed. There were two parades.

General Banks addressed a great crowd in the Custom House. Mr. Mills addressed a smaller crowd at the Mechanics' Institute.

Salutes were fired in the morning, at noon and at night, at several points. The firemen had a torchlight procession, and the colored men were singing John Brown.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A serious accident occurred to the President's car yesterday about 5 o'clock P. M., at the Baltimore depot of the N. C. R. R. The train consisted of an engine and the President's car, and had just arrived from Gettysburg, when, owing to a misaligned switch, it ran into the end of a flat car, which had been unhooked from the train. The President, Mr. A. S. Moore, appointed secretary, and Gen. A. M. Stone, Hon. W. Johnston, Wm. Atwood, Esq., Hon. W. S. Bodley and Rowan Bucharan, Esq., were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—The Fourth was extensively observed. There were two parades.

General Banks addressed a great crowd in the Custom House. Mr. Mills addressed a smaller crowd at the Mechanics' Institute.

Salutes were fired in the morning, at noon and at night, at several points. The firemen had a torchlight procession, and the colored men were singing John Brown.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A serious accident occurred to the President's car yesterday about 5 o'clock P. M., at the Baltimore depot of the N. C. R. R. The train consisted of an engine and the President's car, and had just arrived from Gettysburg, when, owing to a misaligned switch, it ran into the end of a flat car, which had been unhooked from the train. The President, Mr. A. S. Moore, appointed secretary, and Gen. A. M. Stone, Hon. W. Johnston, Wm. Atwood, Esq., Hon. W. S. Bodley and Rowan Bucharan, Esq., were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—The Fourth was extensively observed. There were two parades.

General Banks addressed a great crowd in the Custom House. Mr. Mills addressed a smaller crowd at the Mechanics' Institute.

Salutes were fired in the morning, at noon and at night, at several points. The firemen had a torchlight procession, and the colored men were singing John Brown.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A serious accident occurred to the President's car yesterday about 5 o'clock P. M., at the Baltimore depot of the N. C. R. R. The train consisted of an engine and the President's car, and had just arrived from Gettysburg, when, owing to a misaligned switch, it ran into the end of a flat car, which had been unhooked from the train. The President, Mr. A. S. Moore, appointed secretary, and Gen. A. M. Stone, Hon. W. Johnston, Wm. Atwood, Esq., Hon. W. S. Bodley and Rowan Bucharan, Esq., were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—The Fourth was extensively observed. There were two parades.

General Banks addressed a great crowd in the Custom House. Mr. Mills addressed a smaller crowd at the Mechanics' Institute.

Salutes were fired in the morning, at noon and at night, at several points. The firemen had a torchlight procession, and the colored men were singing John Brown.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A serious accident occurred to the President's car yesterday about 5 o'clock P. M., at the Baltimore depot of the N. C. R. R. The train consisted of an engine and the President's car, and had just arrived from Gettysburg, when, owing to a misaligned switch, it ran into the end of a flat car, which had been unhooked from the train. The President, Mr. A. S. Moore, appointed secretary, and Gen. A. M. Stone, Hon. W. Johnston, Wm. Atwood, Esq., Hon. W. S. Bodley and Rowan Bucharan, Esq., were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—The Fourth was extensively observed. There were two parades.

General Banks addressed a great crowd in the Custom House. Mr. Mills addressed a smaller crowd at the Mechanics' Institute.

Salutes were fired in the morning, at noon and at night, at several points. The firemen had a torchlight procession, and the colored men were singing John Brown.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A serious accident occurred to the President's car yesterday about 5 o'clock P. M., at the Baltimore depot of the N. C. R. R. The train consisted of an engine and the President's car, and had just arrived from Gettysburg, when, owing to a misaligned switch, it ran into the end of a flat car, which had been unhooked from the train. The President, Mr. A. S. Moore, appointed secretary, and Gen. A. M. Stone, Hon. W. Johnston, Wm. Atwood, Esq., Hon. W. S. Bodley and Rowan Bucharan, Esq., were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

Strict Middling at 32c. The grocery trade is brisk and stocks light.

NEW ORLEANS, July 4.—The Fourth was extensively observed. There were two parades.

General Banks addressed a great crowd in the Custom House. Mr. Mills addressed a smaller crowd at the Mechanics' Institute.

Salutes were fired in the morning, at noon and at night, at several points. The firemen had a torchlight procession, and the colored men were singing John Brown.

Railroad Accident.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—A serious accident occurred to the President's car yesterday about 5 o'clock P. M., at the Baltimore depot of the N. C. R. R. The train consisted of an engine and the President's car, and had just arrived from Gettysburg, when, owing to a misaligned switch, it ran into the end of a flat car, which had been unhooked from the train. The President, Mr. A. S. Moore, appointed secretary, and Gen. A. M. Stone, Hon. W. Johnston, Wm. Atwood, Esq., Hon. W. S. Bodley and Rowan Bucharan, Esq., were appointed a committee to draft resolutions.

Upon the retirement of the committee, J. H. Baird, Esq., a few eloquent remarks paid a just tribute to the worth and talents of the deceased, and was followed by R. F. Baird, Esq., in a review of the Louisville bar for twenty-five years; he told of many shining lights that had retired or passed away, he being one of the very few remaining. The bar, which had been a deader one than any other in the country, had now become a great one and was the most active bar in the country.

Large numbers of the old merchants of New Orleans continue to return.

A weekly mail has been established between Mobile and Montgomery.

The total amount of cotton received at Mobile, since Federal occupation, is 11,500 bales.

BY TELEGRAPH.

President Able to Attend Cabinet Meetings.

Soldiers Complain of Commissaries and Paymasters.

Great Enthusiasm in New York on the Fourth.

Imposing Demonstration at Gettysburg.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The Herald's Washington special says: "The President's health is so far improved that he will attend the Cabinet meeting a few hours."

The Navy Department has determined to send an iron-clad gunboat of the Monadnock pattern to the Pacific coast, but has not decided which one of the four shall go.

The troops encamped in the vicinity of New Orleans are in a state of commotion in their complaints of bad treatment by the commissioners for a month past. They declare that they fared better in the field during the campaigns against Richmond for three years past than they have since been encamped in the city. They also complain of not being paid, in many instances, for six months, and manifest much feeling on the subject.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The 80th anniversary of our independence was observed here yesterday with all the solemnity that a year can give to such an occasion. The military display consisted of twenty-five regiments of infantry, cavalry and artillery, accompanied by thirteen bands, and was received with the greatest enthusiasm along the line of march.

The returning veterans had a perfect ovation. A banner was given to the Irish brigade, in Irving Hall, and the wounded and well soldiers were entertained at the State Soldiers' Depot, the City Assembly Rooms, regimental armories, and other places. The shipping in the harbor was held up, and buildings were hung with flags and streamers, and the parks and streets were full of fair women and brave men; and in the evening the fireworks in the various streets and other localities closed the day in a blaze of color. At Gettysburg the day was ushered with a solemn enthusiasm, and the corner-stone of the soldiers' monument was laid with the most imposing ceremonies. At daylight one hundred guns were fired by the camp on the battle-field. At ten o'clock in the morning the procession, headed by Major General Geary, started from the depot and the landing at Evansville the other day.

A dispatch announces the sinking of the steamer Volunteer, in the Cumberland river. The boat is reported a total loss. She was engaged in lighting her cargo over Harpeth shoals, all of which is from Cincinnati.

Very heavy rains fell around St. Paul, last week. The river swelled afterwards. The Davenport left St. Paul for St. Louis on Wednesday.

We learn from the Cincinnati Commercial that the Bertha, which left for Parkersburg on Saturday, was so unfortunate as to break her larboard engine, ten miles above Portsmouth, on Sunday. She returned here for repairs.

ALBANY, July 5.—Among the distinguished persons present and who participated in the celebration yesterday, were Generals Grant, Kilpatrick, Schofield, Sickles, Butler, and Generals Kautz, Devin, Davis, McAllister, Wool, Wallace, Robinson, Jones, Radford and Roberts.

Gen. Grant arrived at 10:30 yesterday morning by a special train. He wasescorted to the residence of Gov. Fenton, where other military gentlemen and a party of civilians were waiting to receive him.

The party from Gov. Fenton's house was driven in carriages to the Washington parade ground under an escort of military and the Young's Men's Association. Here a building had been erected for the occasion 240 feet long by 100 in width, and provided with a platform.

The appearance of Gen. Grant upon the stand was the signal for hearty cheering, and in response he arose and bowed to the assemblage.

The tattooed flags of about one hundred New York regiments were then formally presented to the State.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—Swift, adj. general of Louisiana has resigned, and goes North.

Kennedy has been reinstated as Mayor of the city.

The appointed committee announced the colors of the 4th.

M. N. Nolton writes Gov. Wells, through the New Orleans Times, offering bonds of three hundred thousand dollars to repair the levees from New Orleans to Arkansas the coming winter, employing 30,000 white laborers.

Cincinnati.—No sales of moment.

Gold—130 to 140. Domestic Exchange—Quiet at previous rates. Sugar and Molasses.—The market is at a stand still. Western Produce—One hundred bags mixed corn at $1.25, and prime Western $1.45. 100 lbs. superfine sugar at $7.12 1/2; 100 do. at $7.10 and 100 good superfine sugar at $7.10. 100 sacks meal at $1.75 per bushel; 7 lbs. old meal at 15c per pound; new meal at 15c.

CINCINNATI, July 5.—River fallen 3 inches. Weather clear. Terrio, 96.

PITTSBURG, July 5—River 5 feet 2 inches water by the pier mark. Weather clear.

RIVER MATTERS.

ARRIVALS.

TUESDAY, July 2.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, July 3.

United States, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Maj. Charles, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

DEPARTURES.

TUESDAY, July 4.

St. Nicholas, Cincinnati, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

WEDNESDAY, July 5.

United States, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Maj. Charles, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

THURSDAY, July 6.

St. Nicholas, Cincinnati, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

FRIDAY, July 7.

United States, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Maj. Charles, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

SATURDAY, July 8.

St. Nicholas, Cincinnati, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SUNDAY, July 9.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

MONDAY, July 10.

St. Nicholas, Cincinnati, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Maj. Charles, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

TUESDAY, July 11.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, July 12.

St. Nicholas, Cincinnati, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Maj. Charles, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

THURSDAY, July 13.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

FRIDAY, July 14.

St. Nicholas, Cincinnati, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Gen. Bell, Cincinnati, Maj. Charles, Cincinnati, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, Henderson, Gen. F. W. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans, Gen. Morris, Morris Star, New Orleans.

SATURDAY, July 15.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SUNDAY, July 16.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

MONDAY, July 17.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

TUESDAY, July 18.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, July 19.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

THURSDAY, July 20.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

FRIDAY, July 21.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SATURDAY, July 22.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SUNDAY, July 23.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

MONDAY, July 24.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

TUESDAY, July 25.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, July 26.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

THURSDAY, July 27.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

FRIDAY, July 28.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SATURDAY, July 29.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SUNDAY, July 30.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

MONDAY, July 31.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

TUESDAY, Aug. 1.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 2.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

THURSDAY, Aug. 3.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

FRIDAY, Aug. 4.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SATURDAY, Aug. 5.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SUNDAY, Aug. 6.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

MONDAY, Aug. 7.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

TUESDAY, Aug. 8.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 9.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

THURSDAY, Aug. 10.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

FRIDAY, Aug. 11.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SATURDAY, Aug. 12.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SUNDAY, Aug. 13.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

MONDAY, Aug. 14.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

TUESDAY, Aug. 15.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 16.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

THURSDAY, Aug. 17.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

FRIDAY, Aug. 18.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SATURDAY, Aug. 19.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

SUNDAY, Aug. 20.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

MONDAY, Aug. 21.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

TUESDAY, Aug. 22.

Hard Times, Pittsburg, Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati, Maj. Anderson, Cincinnati, Gen. Nichols, Sandy Valley, MacLean.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 23.

Hard Times, Pitt